

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (INTERNSHIP)

Summary

MBA graduate with a background in business management across industries including healthcare and information technology, focused on comparing best practices between leading players in each sector. Seeking an analyst role where professional skills and business knowledge can be applied, with a preference for business analysis.

Skills

Languages: Chinese, English and Japanese Professional Skills: Microsoft Office, Excel, PowerPoint, Word, Outlook, SQL, Adobe Suite, Flash, Photoshop, Illustrator, 3D Max Additional: PHP, Java, C#, Visual Basic, HTML, Coding, Programming, Customer Relationship Management (CRM), ERP Systems, RFID, E-Commerce, Electronic Product Code (EPC), Financial Accounting, Human Resources (HR), Business Marketing, International Trade (Import and Export), App Development, SEM, analysis, QMS, Statistics, Healthcare.

Experience

July 2014 to September 2014 CompanyName City, State Information Technology (Internship) Investigated issues arising between end users and systems. Rotated through several hospital departments, including the Emergency Room, Registration, Pharmacy, the Central Sterile Supplies Department (CSSD), and the Medical Supplies store room.

September 2013 to December 2015 CompanyName City, State Business Analyst Partnered with the Tourism Bureau to release the "Taiwan Hot Spring Voucher" as a promotional initiative for Taiwan. Grew a Facebook fan page to 3,000 followers within three months. Built and designed the official website.

May 2012 to January 2015 CompanyName City, State Chief Executive Officer Opened five new business locations, two of them inside large-scale department stores nationally. Organized cultural events, including the Simple Life Festival in Taipei and Shanghai, China. Released a limited edition custom dress in collaboration with bloggers, setting a sales record. All 100 custom dresses sold out within four hours. Grew sales by 25 percent across two quarters.

September 2011 to June 2013 CompanyName City, State Campus Youth E-Service Volunteer Organized summer and winter camps for children with limited access to educational resources. Served as team lead and recorder.

Education

2016 CompanyName University City, State, USA Business Administration and Management MBA